CONCEPT 3: "VET TECH"

:30 TV

Open on the Tuition Monster getting his teeth checked by a little kid with a small pen light.

Tuition Monster, sounding funny because his mouth is open while talking:
"So, let me guess, you want to be a dental hygienist like your mom?"

The little kid shakes his head and moves to check the Tuition Monster's ears.

Tuition Monster: "No? Ok then. An ENT?"

Kid, shaking his head again "I want to be veterinary technician and help pets like you."

Tuition Monster: "Oh well, that's great. But I'm not a pet you know."

Kid: "Then why do you have fur?"

The Tuition Monster pauses as if considering this: "Good question."

We cut back to the little boy and the Tuition Monster. The little kid is holding animal nail trimmers.

Kid: "These claws need a trim."
